

Medal

Gender

Year

Country

Season

With 58 medals, Robert Tait Mckenzie stands as the top Olympic athlete.

With 5637 medals, the USA leads with the most Olympic wins.

16413 athletes participate , in the year 1992, marking the highest number of Olympic participants in history.

During winter Olympics, fewer athletes participate compared to summer Olympics, reflecting distinct sports preferences in varying seasonal competitions.

At the age of 23,athletes achieved a remarkable feat, winning 3395 medals, surpassing all other age groups.

The youngest athlete in the competition is just 10 years old, while the oldest athlete competing is an impressive 73 years old.